

wine of the month

2014 schild estate shiraz

gls - $11

btl - $44

barossa valley, south australia

tom robson tasting notes:

ruby red in colour, spicy, red fruits and briary nose, speaks of barossa soil, red earth on quartz. pleasant medium bodied on palate with soft red fruits with spicy undertones. good acid and grainy tannins. a great example of aussie shiraz

cocktail of the month

frutalicious - a lovely blend of elderflower liqueur, cuban white rum, passionfruit and strawberry puree

what we're drinking at the moment.....

ken

2016 kooyong beurrot pinot gris – $65

everyone's moving to pinot gris and i have joined them!! this wine is my favourite example of a good pinot gris. the palate is deep in flavours of pineapple and cinnamon. so refreshing and delicate. yum!

2014 domaine etienne boileau chablis – $88

aniseed, chalk, yellow and green fruits on the nose. light, fresh, clean, mineral, pepper that builds along the palate. amazing length. this wine is a complete package

michael

2014 foxeys hangout shiraz – $98

the lee brothers were once the publicans at 'the argo' in south yarra. for the past 15 years they've made great wines on the mornington peninsula. this shiraz, while young, has strong white pepper notes leading to a rich plum jam palate and a lengthy finish.

tom

2012 the signature cabernet shiraz – $98

the iconic label by yalumba had it's first release in 1962. a blend of cabernet and shiraz, 'the sig' has very dark fruit, is rustic on the nose and follows a rich and spicy palate of cassis and black current. a true classic. 96 points tom robson

wayne

2015 rob dolan pinot noir – $50

this month I'm drinking a new pinot noir from the yarra valley. dark berries, spicy and silky. the 'true colours' pinot noir produced by rob dolan is a cracker

matt p

2014 ata rangi chardonnay – $80

grapes grown 30 k's north east of martinborough, this chardonnay displays rich flavours of oak and stone fruit with an overtone of butter. a true representation of what i like a chardonnay to be

- Please note that a surcharge of 2.5% applies to American Express and Diners Club
