

wine of the month

2013 montevecor grenache – calatayud, spain gls - $13 btl - $52

tom robson tasting notes: named after the victor mountains that surround the regions landscape, this wine is 100% grenache, bright deep red cherry in colour it is dusty, herbal and earthy on the nose. the palate follows with subtle red fruits, crushed herbs and red fruits. medium in body this wine finishes with firm tannin and great length. a truly gorgeous wine.

cocktail of the month

mai tai - need an escape from winter? try this tropical and fruity rum based cocktail. add some cointreau and transport yourself to that deserted beach.....

what we're drinking at the moment.....

2014 curly flat chardonnay - $98

i'm off to curly flat winery soon for their famous wine tasting lunches. so i'm getting in the mood with their classic chardonnay. rich and refined.....yum!

2015 hentley farm stray mongrel gsz - $62

the addition of zinfandel to the traditional blend of grenache and shiraz is unique to hentley farm... with each variety separately crushed, fermented and matured, the stray mongrel displays the level of aromatic and flavour complexity you would expect from a blend of such diverse varietals.

1993 peter lehmann mentor cabernet blend - $150

my family have used this wine for birthday celebrations for many years. full bodied, rich and full of dark plum with blackberry notes and hint of eucalyptus. it's definitely in its window now, so enjoy it with your next family birthday!

2014 vasse felix premier cabernet sauvignon - $80

sometimes a wine just reflects the region perfectly. made since 1972 this wine never misses a beat. cassis and mulberries dominate the nose, the palate is smooth as silk with crushed herbs, licorice, blue fruits followed by a pleasant grippy tannin.

2014 journey wines shiraz - $85

nice weather to be drinking a great shiraz from heathcote. the journey wines have created a wonderful medium bodied shiraz, great drinking.

le tez

six foot six pinot noir - $52

beautiful pinot noir from geelong. this wine delivers dark cherry flavours, cloves and a dry tannin. this wine goes well with the duo of duck or without anything.....just enjoy
