

winery of the month

yalumba

yalumba founder, samuel hill smith planted yalumba's first vineyard 170 years ago. in ode to this, yalumba have released the samuel's collection range of wines.

rooted in history and rich in tales of perserverance, samuel's collection celebrates the founder of yalumba, honouring his spirit of embracing provenance and giving back to the land to make this collection of fine barossa and eden valley wines possible.

the malvern hotel is pouring 1 white and 3 reds to celebrate this. also check out or one of our many highlighted yalumba products by the bottle what we're drinking at the moment.....

ken stella artois pints, belgium - $14 but only $7 between 9pm and 10pm no wine for me this month with stella artois pints on special between 9pm and 10pm. it is perfect timing for my knock off drinks so please come and join me! cheers!

susan 2017 tony bish fat n sassy chardonnay, hawkes bay, nz - blt $70
this wine has an aroma of citrus, tropical fruit and pistachio nuts. it is medium bodied with wonderful acidity and a long finish that is smooth on the palate. a perfect match to pork or poultry michael 2015 craiglee cabernet sauvignon , sunbury, vic - btl $76

a wonderful wine that is fresh and pungent. a couple of regulars opened this one saturday while watching the footy and i was reminded that pat & diane carmody have been making superb wines at craiglee for forty years now. this wine is simply delicious tom 2018 bests great western riesling, vic - btl $65 bests winery is located just outside stawell where my family is from. their riesling is one of the country's best. with rootstock from germany this wine shows hallmarks of top german riesling as well as the intensity and finesse of the great western region. the wine is made to show true varietal characteristics – jasmine and lavender – retaining the fruits inherent aromatics and acidity tez 2014 torres altos ibericos crianza, rioja, esp - gls $13 btl $52

this delicious tempranillo displays rich fruit aromas with spicy peppercorn and smoky notes. intense with firm tannins nicely structured by oak aging. i strongly recommend this with red meat or a cheese platter

Please note that a surcharge of 2.5% applies to American Express and Diners Club
